

Artist in the Garden

ARTrails artist

Carlene Salazar submitted this original photo and her final painting done during the Gig Harbor Garden Tour, Artist in the Garden Program. The Garden Tour was the weekend of June 29 and 30. The painting was done plein air over the two days. Carlene enjoys painting plein air any time, and appreciates the opportunity to discuss art and demonstrate techniques to garden show visitors.

Carlene will be painting at the Chehalis Fest the last Saturday in July. See more ARTrails artists showing and selling their work during this unique festival in Chehalis. Keep an eye out for more activities with ARTrails Artists!

Open Studio Tour and Gala Reception

Now is the time to make plans for ARTrails 2019 Annual Studio Tour.

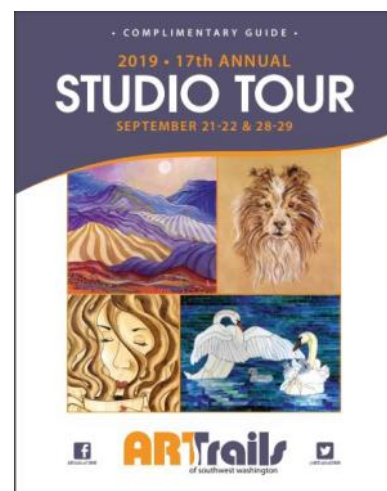

ARTrails is working with other arts and community organizations to make your 2018 visit even better. We will be adding other events and "happenings" as we get closer to September.

Make your plans now to spend a delightful fall weekend driving through the region's historic communities and meandering along back roads while enjoying wonderful art, Talking to the artists and watching them at work in their studios. See how and where the artists work find your favorite pieces of art and discover Southwest Washington.

The 2019 tour will open with the Gala Reception on September 20th, at the Exhibition Gallery in downtown Centralia's Historic Train Depot (210 Railroad Avenue, Centralia WA).

Press Release: June, 26 2019

ARTrails Is Active Year-round

The ARTrails fall Studio Tours and Sales are scheduled for September 21-22 and 28-29. First Look is September 18 and is geared toward donors. The Gala is September 20, and is a great way for everybody to meet the artists, see their work, and decide which artists you want to visit.

The date and location for the 2020 Spring Show and Sale, sponsored by ARTrails, have been finalized. The dates are April 23-25 in Borst Park, Kitchen #2. Kitchen #1 has been reserved in case we get so many participants that we need more space!

This summer, ARTrails members will be out and about at various shows, parades, and other events. For instance, we'll be at the Centralia 4th of July Parade, The Chehalis Fest the last Saturday of July, and the Blueberry Fest August 3 in Mossyrock.

The Spring Art Show and Sale is open to all artists, whether you are ARTrails members or not. Photos of your work must be submitted for the jury process by March 14, 2020. Reminders will be posted on our website.
