Visit Artists

Look through this Studio Guide and identify the artists you'd like to visit, or just pick a starting spot and see them all! The map will direct you to each studio. Watch for the ARTrails signs (note that several stops have a group of artists showing together).

Buy Art

This is a great opportunity to meet the artists, see how they create their work, and purchase original art for your home, work, or gifts! Artwork is for sale at individual studios and the Exhibition Gallery.

Become a Friend of ARTrails

You don't have to be an artist to be a part of this artistic community. As a Friend you are invited to join us at gatherings and events and you help support the arts.

Where to Stay

It's nearly impossible to visit all the studios and meet the artists in one day. Plan on staying the weekend or stay the entire week and discover beautiful Lewis County. When you make your reservation tell them that you are coming for ARTrails!

For a list of hotels, bed and breakfasts, and cabins in the area, visit:

arttrailsofsw.org/where-to-stay

Experience Art.

Fall is a wonderful time of year in Lewis County, so come out and enjoy it!

This September, 33 artists offer the perfect opportunity for such an excursion—the 21st Annual ARTrails Studio Tour. Take a drive through the region's historic communities and wander the back roads of Lewis County. Along the way drop in to watch artists at work and help us celebrate ARTrails' 21st year.

The Studio Tour is free and self-guided. You will have the opportunity to support local arts and artists by purchasing original artwork at each studio as well as at the Exhibition Gallery.

As you take the tour, we hope you enjoy the other pleasures of Southwest Washington. Have lunch at one of our many fine eateries, visit local shops and galleries, take a stroll in one of our parks or recreational areas, and explore our museums and historical sights. Check our website for local tourism and lodging information and plan on spending the weekend.

This Studio Guide contains artist information and a map to the studios. You can experience hands-on art at the following studios: 1, 4, 10, 11, 13, and 14.

ARTTrails

of southwest washington

A special thanks to our friends, sponsors and patrons for their generosity!

ARTTrails of Southwest Washington is a community of emerging and established artists who live and work in the greater Lewis County area. Through the annual open studio tour, ARTTrails provides an opportunity for the public to meet artists in their studio/workplace and to observe work in progress. ARTTrails promotes the arts and the work of member artists through exhibits, workshops, and educational programs.

Lewis County and the Cities of Centralia and Chehalis have generously supported the vision and activities of ARTTrails over the years. We thank them, as well as the other communities of Lewis County, for their support of the arts. We look forward to our continuing and evolving relationships.

We also thank the volunteers and businesses who have contributed to our events and success. Their ongoing support has been a major factor in our success. Now in our 21st year, our community of participating artists continues to grow, as does our support in and of the broader community. We are very grateful to all. Additional information is available on our website: ARTTrailsofSWW.org

The History of ARTTrails

of southwest washington

In the spring of 2003, while having dinner after a successful Vernal Equinox Art Fair at Morgan Arts Centre in Toledo, Richard and Susan Roth and Di and Mike Morgan started talking, scheming and dreaming. The four artists decided this area needed something new, something that would involve more artists and that would be a vehicle to build a community of artists.

In early April, they invited 21 Lewis County artists to participate in an artist co-operative event modeled after a similar event held in Sonoma County, California. Working with David Eatwell and the City of Centralia, ARTrails of Southwest Washington was born. The City of Centralia has supported ARTrails from the very beginning. By September, the first ARTrails studio tour became a reality, sending visitors to studios throughout Lewis County. The first Exhibition Gallery was held in the city-owned Wilson Hotel in downtown Centralia and showcased the work of artists from Olympia to Longview and from Morton to Raymond. The next year, and every year since, Centralia has opened the Historic Train Depot to the members of ARTrails for use as the Exhibition Gallery.
